

Jaime Trancoso, Ph.D.

The peculiarity of his curriculum is a perfect balance between an encyclopaedic academic formation and a rich work experience, resulting in a professional with great skills and qualities for research and organisation.

Jaime Trancoso defended his Summa Cum Laude PhD in Flamenco Music at the University of Seville, which was granted with the Best Doctoral Thesis Award of Seville in 2012. Jaime received a Masters in Arts Administration and Management by the University of London, as well as being a musicologist by the Universidad Autonoma de Madrid. He is also a music teacher and pianist specialised by the Associated Board of Royal Schools of Music.

As a manager, agent and producer, thanks to being the director and founder of Flamenco Agency (dedicated to placing Flamenco shows in national & international festivals, opera houses, theatres and venues), Trancoso holds the key to providing the best flamenco and classical artists who are renowned for giving the audience goose bumps and getting them on their feet. He has placed Flamenco artists & Spanish Flamenco Ballets in the most relevant Festivals and theatres of the world, such as festival members of the European Festival Association (EFA-AEF), as Ljubljana Festival, and Opera Houses, as Teatro Campoamor, Heydar Aliyev Center and the Royal Opera House Muscat.

He has obtained vital experience in important festivals, such as USA-London Flamenco Festival at the Carnegie Hall of NYC and at the Sadler's Wells of London and artist agencies in the UK. He was also the coordinator of the Spanish Music Festival of Cadiz. In addition, Dr. Trancoso is frequently required to give conferences at the Maestranza Theatre opera house, Universidad de Sevilla, Universidad Autonoma de Madrid and flamenco cultural centres. For further information, please, visit www.flamencoagency.com and www.jaimetrancoso.com